Holy Trinity School - West End, Woking

Continuing our support for local schools, Vickery & Company has recently been proud to make a donation towards the Holy Trinity School's Summer Fair in West End village. Following a very successful day, the money raised will be used to refurbish the reception area at the school, provide additional classroom furniture and equipment for the school's information technology section.

Anyone for Cricket?

Vickery & Company not only make donations to local schools – we also try to support a range of community interests, including sports clubs. When we were approached by Howard Turner, Vice Captain of the West End Cricket Club, to assist with fundraising we were only too glad to help. During the Club's season some 23 fixtures are played including tours to various parts of Britain, like the recent tour to Cornwall where the team was very successful in winning all three of their matches played. The money donated will be used to provide additional equipment and practice nets.

Lifeboat Day

On the 28th May 2002, Vickery & Company hosts to the Camberley branch of the RNLI by providing the use of our Camberley office as a headquarters for the volunteers collecting in the town centre area.

A total of £1,663 was raised from the town collection and one at Watchmoor Park. In the week prior to this, a further £900 was raised by schools and house-to-house collections. Charles Gimblett, co-ordinator of operations for the Camberley branch of the RNLI was delighted with the results.

Words Speak Volumes

We regularly receive testimonials from satisfied clients, however, with our expansion into Frimley in mind, we were delighted to hear from Gabrielle Hadley, who has kindly given her permission to print a letter she recently sent in.

Dear David

First of all I would like to thank your team for the hard work you have all done to get our house sold, when two other estate agents couldn't!

I know you have to work as a team to make it all happen, but our thanks go specifically to those we have dealt with mainly; that being you, Jordan, Andrew and Luke. I would appreciate it if you'd pass on our further thanks to Michael for his amazing patience and humour, during the last couple of months to close this deal to exchange.

We are planning to leave here around 1pm and heading north straight away. It would be good if you could keep the key you already have of ours, so that it can be given to the Lis when the monies have all gone through. I will be on my mobile if you need to contact me. On Wednesday 19; I shall drop off some other keys, in case anything happened to the one you currently hold. We will secure the house with the remaining keys and put the front door key through the letterbox when we go. Doing things this way will save us half an hour, which will be needed on a Friday afternoon heading north!

I am assuming that Gareth Humphreys will include your bill in our final calculations, (as this seems to have been the process in previous house sales) and that he will pay your bill from our balance. If you do not operate in this fashion, please advise and I will raise a cheque when the monies have been processed.

Yours sincerely
Gabrielle Hadley

Excerpts from other letters received recently include:

Dear Mr Vickery

I would like to express our appreciation of the professional way in which Scott Molloy and his team handled the sale of our mother's bungalow. We were kept well informed and Scott was willing to follow things up and go the extra mile to achieve completion to our agreed time scale.

FARNBOROUGH OFFICE

Dear Andy

Your colleagues could not have been more helpful and their approach to our problem and the professionalism shown was typical of what a high class firm of Estate Agents Vickery & Company are. Perhaps in the future we will be able to do business again.

CAMBERLEY OFFICE

Dear Stephen

I would like to thank both you and your staff for the professional way you conducted the sale of our house. We were particularly impressed with the dedicated follow up service you provided that ensured a smooth approach from the initial offers to formal contract exchange. We believe this service removed a great deal of the stress associated with selling a house.
